

Anero, Nnamdi was employed as a lecturer with the Rivers State College of Education now Ignatius Ajuru University of Education in 2005. He was appointed a Professor of Childhood Education in 2020. He has taught at all levels of education. He has taught over 40 courses at colleges and universities. Likewise, he has published over 60 articles (local and international journals), 4 books, 7 book chapters, co-authored 1 book, and sent 2 books to the press for publication. Even with our poor ICT facilities, his Google Scholar profile indicates that he has been cited by over 45 researchers. He has supervised over 50 masters and Ph.D students.

He is a member of over 15 learned professional bodies. Furthermore, he has attended over 57 local and international conferences and workshops. In 2019, he co-chaired an international conference sponsored by UNESCO at Mgimo University, Moscow Russia for Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE). In 2023, he was a panelist in an international conference held in Kigali, Rwanda whose theme was “peace education in era of crisis”. In Nigeria, he is well known in the field of Childhood Education. He serves as both External Examiner and Assessor for over 7 Nigerian universities; some of them are: OAU - Ile Ife; the University of Nigeria Nsukka, Taraba State University-Jalingo, University of Uyo, Delta State University Abraka, Michael Okpara University of Agriculture, Umudike and the University of Port Harcourt among others. He is also an External Assessor with University of Cape Coast, Ghana. Furthermore, he is currently the Research Officer, Directorate of Youth, Sports, Culture and Women Affairs of the Niger Delta Development Commission (NDDC). In terms of university administration, he has served as a Head of Department, Director, Board member and Dean of Student Affairs. Apart from administrative responsibilities, he has rendered community services to the university community as Committee chairperson, secretary or member at the department, faculty and university levels. Outside the university, he has served many organizations in leadership positions. He was a onetime Governor, Etche Association of Friends; Chancellor, Unique Assembly and Chairman Okehi Development Frontiers among others. In recognition of these services to humanity, many organizations gave him awards. Some of the awarding bodies are: Student Union Government (SUG) Ignatius Ajuru University of Education, Port Harcourt, National Union of Okehi Clan Students, IAUE Branch among others. To crown it all, the Rivers State Government appointed him as one of the JPs in 2016. Anero, Nnamdi is happily married with children.