

A BRIEF PROFILE

Kingsley Eme Nsirim is a native of Aluu in the Ikwerre Local Government Area of Rivers State, Nigeria. He had his primary school education at state school, Aluu (now known as state school I, Aluu). After this, he proceeded to Baptist High School Port Harcourt.

Kingsley Eme Nsirim holds B.Ed degree in History of the University of Ibadan, and a Master of Arts (M.A) and Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D) degrees all in philosophy of the University of Port Harcourt. He specializes in Social Ethics and Human Right Philosophy.

Kingsley Eme Nsirim is Senior Lecturer in the Department of Foundation and Arts Education, Faculty of Education, Ignatius Ajuru University of Education, Rumuolumeni, Port Harcourt.

He has participated in many conferences and workshops and has published a good number of Journal Articles in both Local and International to his credit.

Nsirim, is also a traditional title holder and currently the secretary of Aluu clan council of Chiefs. He is happily married with four children-two Boys and two Girls.